

Valentine wines

Lovely sips for two

USA TODAY NETWORK

A carefully selected wine can enhance the enjoyment of a romantic meal. These bottles offer delicious options for any palate.

Gary Farrell
2017
Pinot Noir

From one of California's most acclaimed pinot noir houses, this alluring wine is a classic Russian River Valley pinot. Supple, smooth and elegant, it pairs well with food and is perfect for sipping.

■ Price: $45.

Clos Pegase
2018
Rosé

This appealing wine is made from malbec grown at the winery's estate vineyard in the Carneros region of Napa Valley. Its gorgeous hue is a prelude to flavors that range from strawberry to fresh apricot.

■ Price: $22.

Firesteed
2018
Riesling

Fragrant and juicy, this Oregon riesling has a touch of sweetness balanced by a crisp character. Aromas of peach and honeysuckle give way to a luscious texture and mouth-watering flavors.

■ Price: $16.